Los Angeles

The strength of Five Keys is our partnerships. We are proud to partner with JVS as they offer support services to our Veteran participants. They provide work boots and clothing, as well as resume-building classes taught by college professors. Through our partnerships, we are able to provide holistic care for participants. It truly takes a village.

Welcome!

Five Keys welcomes Alise Minor, Aaron Rose, and Robert Wroten as our new Employment Transitions Coordinators for San Francisco, San Diego, and Modesto. They are vital team members, and we look forward to all the success stories they will provide.

Stockton

Benefiting our participants, Five Keys Management Staff works side by side with El Concilio at the 2nd Friday Food Drive in Stockton.

Reinvest

With the support and guidance of our program, we proudly announce that Participants Marisa Guzman, Sierra Lackey, & Joseph Gonzales have made the courageous jump to enroll back into high school! We are very proud of them and know this decision will help lead to better job opportunities in their future.

CalCRG State Quarterly Review

Our state grant manager sends congratulations to the Reinvest Team for "outperforming" on their Quarterly Audit and being the most highlighted grantee on their Wall of Appreciation!

San Francisco

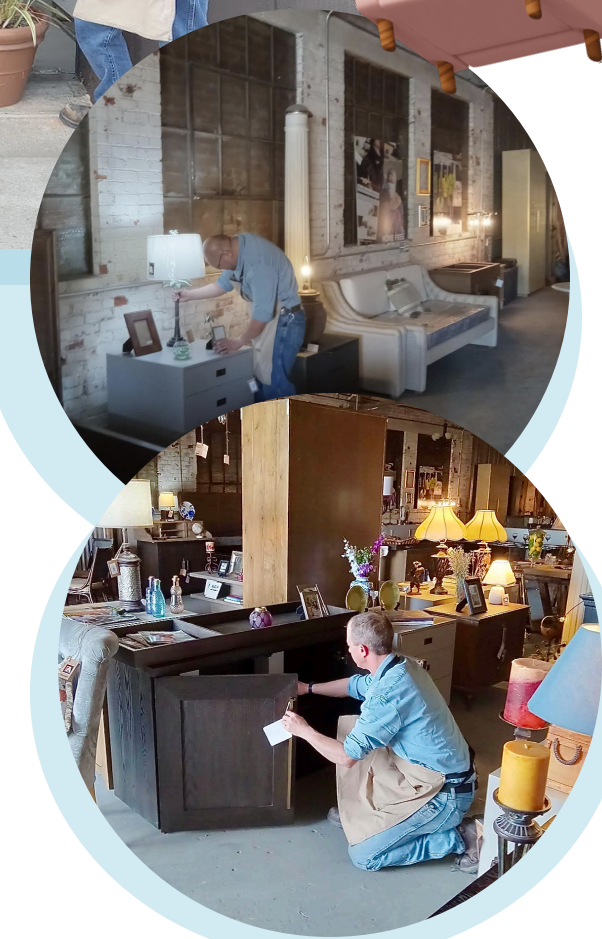

San Francisco's Back2Work Program has found a new space at 1099 Sunnydale. We share the space with FACES, who held a reentry services job fair on April 28th. We look forward to future collaborations between Five Keys and FACES!

Furniture Annex

Assistant Manager Charles and Furniture Medic Raymond continue to uphold social justice programs by running our Furniture Annex. We continue to acknowledge their outstanding work and customer service.

Furniture Annex is open Wed-Friday 11-7 and 10-6 Sat/Sun

April Workshops

Devon Miller, Joshua Hunt, Horacio Ledon, Jose Parada

Transitional Employment participants are proudly displaying their workshop certificates for April. Our workshops include information on financial literacy, resume-building CalCareer accounts, Caltrans applications, and career exploration.

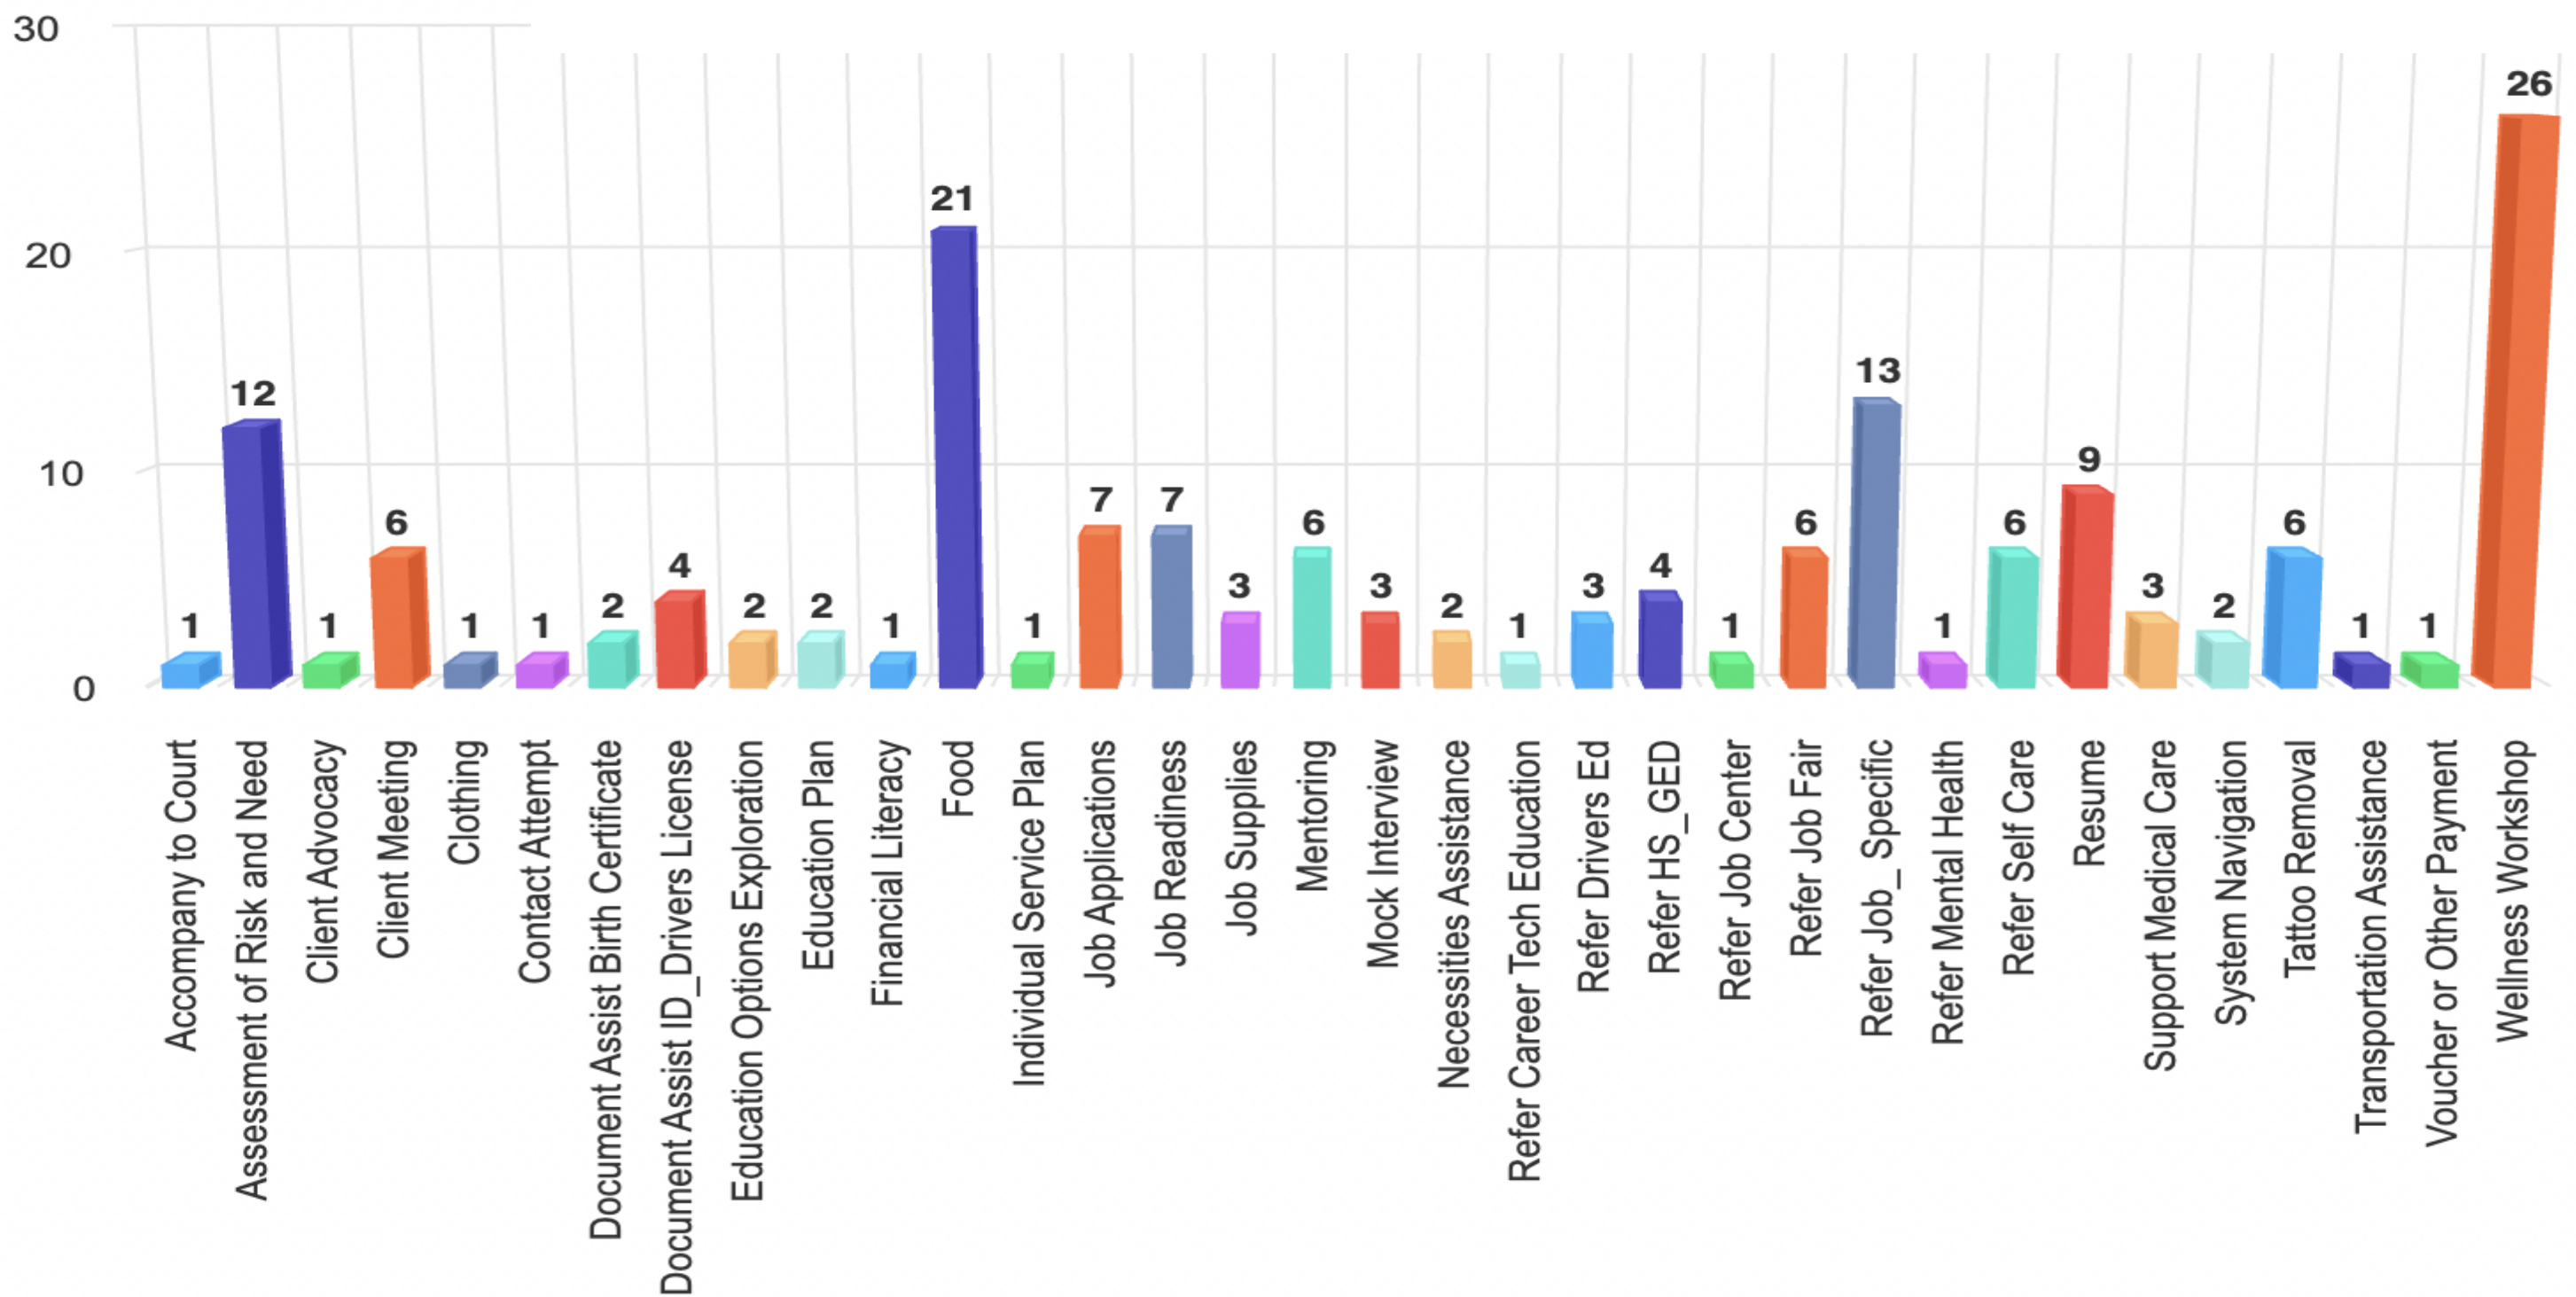

Transitional Employment Coordinator Report

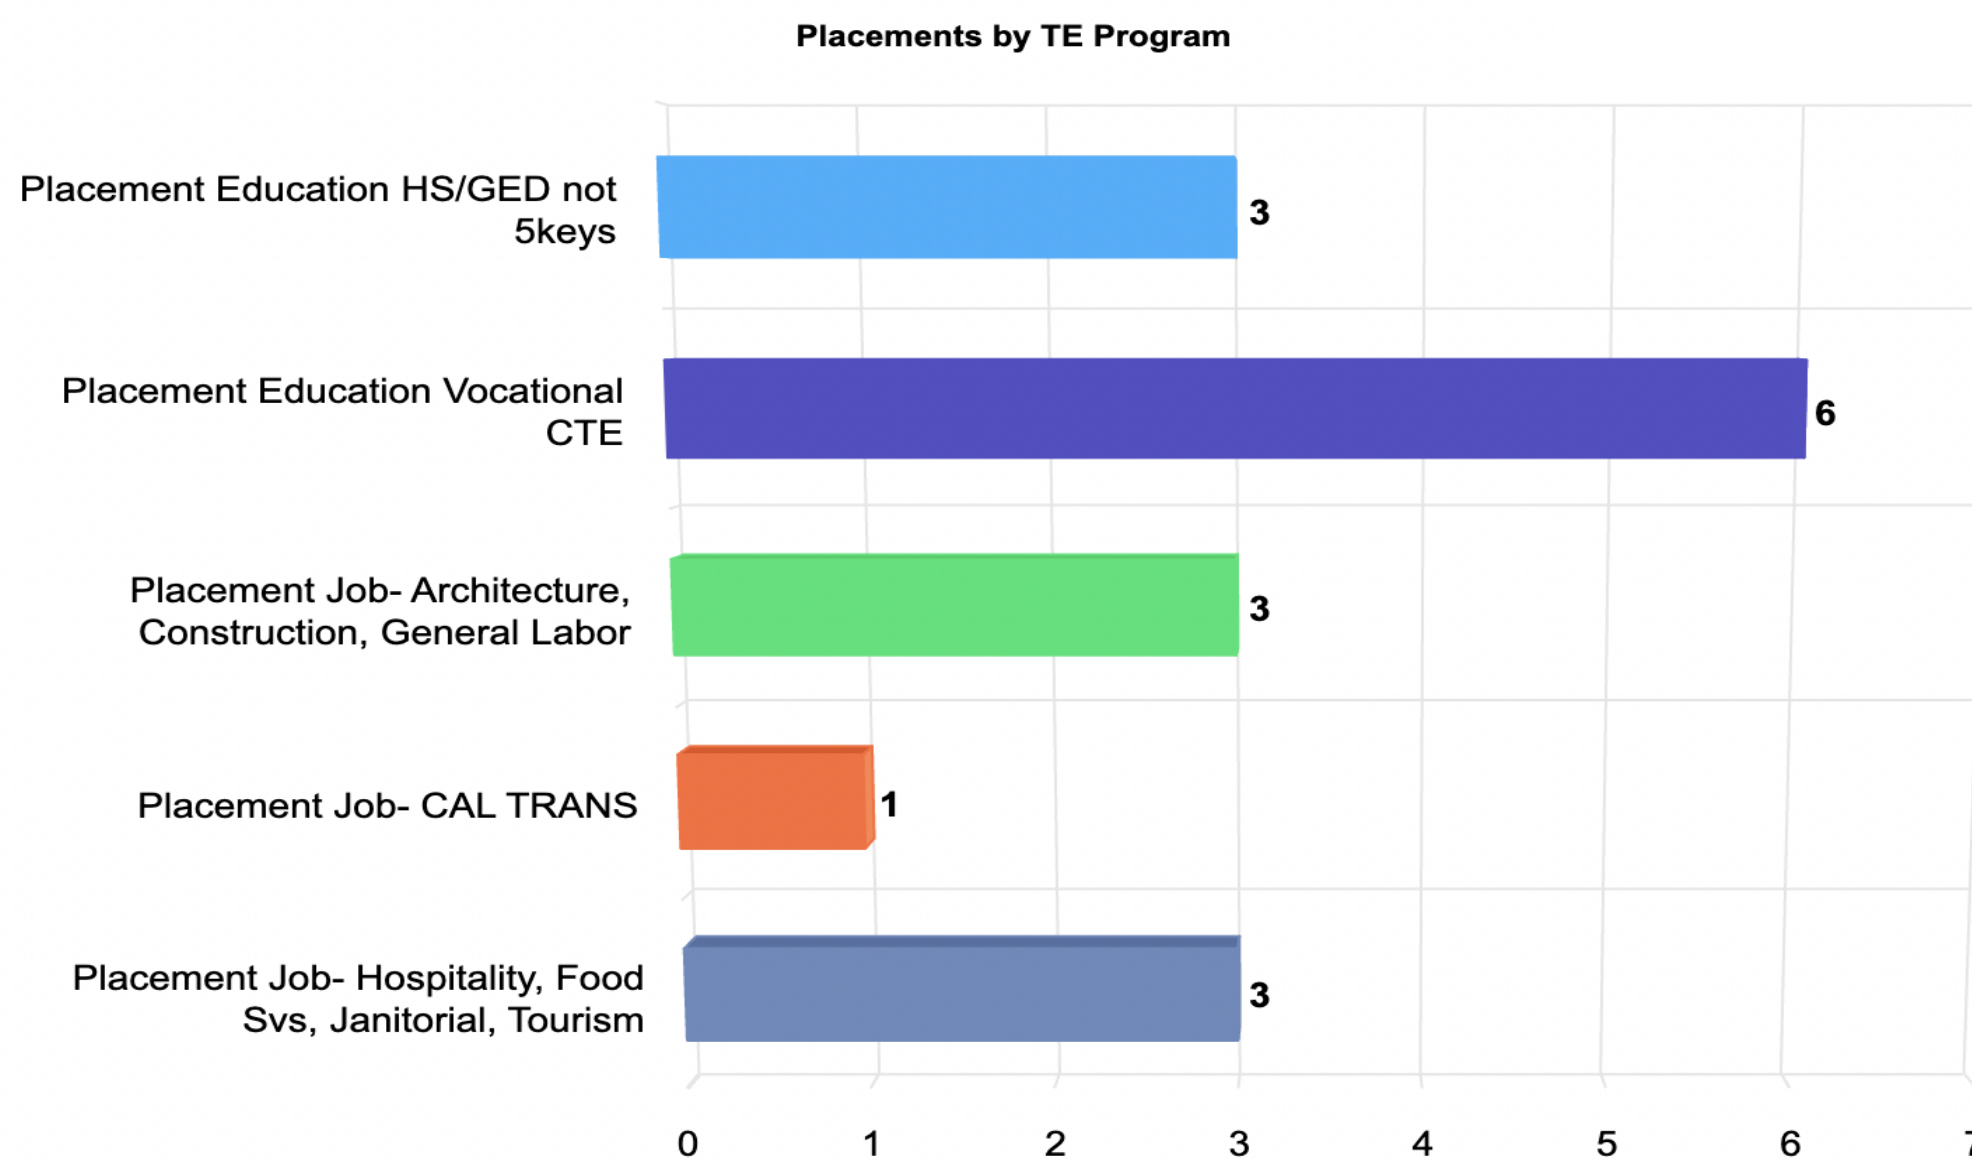

We have Coordinators serving our crews in Los Angeles, Modesto, Stockton, Santa Barbara, San Diego, San Mateo and San Francisco!
